With the Drug Cartels making big news in recent months, we start off with a general session overview of their activities and their influence on Texas. We will also hear about gang mentality from a former gang member and someone who has worked closely with the gang world. Our third general session will feature a former White Supremacist recruiter and his first-hand experience in sowing the seeds of hatred in his former life. For the first time, we will offer breakout sessions at the Gangs Conference so you can choose the topics that interest you the most. We look forward to discussions with you on one of the most pressing issues of our time.
