

Foundation Skills for Trainers

Nomination/Endorsement of Application by Nominee's Division Director

The Texas Probation Training Academy (TPTA) at the Correctional Management Institute of Texas (CMIT) in conjunction with the Community Justice Assistance Division (CJAD) of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission (TJPC) and the Texas Youth Commission (TYC) is providing Foundation Skills for Trainers workshops to assist you in developing your in-house training staff. All registration fees will be waived for this training. (Participants are responsible for travel, accommodations and meals for this training.)

The Foundation Skills for Trainers course focuses on presentation preparation techniques, program delivery and training evaluation. Topics covered include the following:

- The Context of Training
- The Context of the Learner (Learner Centered Instruction)
- Training Design
- Training Preparation
- Training Delivery Using Training Aids
- Group Management Skills
- Applying and Extending Learning from the Classroom to the Workplace

Upon successful completion, your agency will have the capacity to develop in-house curriculum tailored to your specific needs by a certified trainer.

Because this program is highly specialized and in great demand, the sponsoring agencies had requested that all applicants submit a nomination and endorsement from their respective "Division Director".

TPTA will not accept application forms that do not have the endorsement of the nominee's division director, as defined below:

- For community corrections. The head of the nominee's division, such as the chief probation officer, chairperson of the parole board, executive director of the agency, or director of the department, depending on the organizational structure of the agency.
- For the Texas Youth Commission all Nomination Forms should be sent to the Director of Staff Development and HR Field Operations for approval and signature.
- Individuals from private organizations must submit with their application an endorsement letter from the division director (as defined above) of the public agency to which the private organization provides service. The endorsement letter must verify that the private organization is contractually or statutorily required to deliver services to the corrections agency making the endorsement.

Please note that this program is only available to individuals employed or regulated by CJAD, TJPC or TYC.
