Instructor

Charlotte Stallings is the Founder and President of Getting Smart! LLC, a professional speaking, training, and consulting firm that shows people how to get smart about personal leadership and success. Charlotte gained expertise in the nuts and bolts of business from her years at powerhouse corporations such as US Banks, Xerox and over 20 years at American Express. By taking risks, making mistakes, and gathering information she grew into the kind of expert that you can trust. As a Vice President for American Express, Charlotte personally coached, presented to, and trained over half of the 12,000+ members of the field force on strategies to help them be more effective and generate more business. Charlotte has made appearances on CNN and other national and regional media outlets. She is also a member of the National Speakers Association. Charlotte's book, I Wish Someone Had Told Me: Financial Lessons Learned The Hard Way, will be published later this year.
